

My family has enjoyed the benefits of being on the no-call list. We would like to see the current laws upheld in order to maintain our improved quality of life that does not include numerous telemarketing calls to our home. Thank you.